The Dayton Police Department will welcome 22 new police officers when members of the 104th police recruit class are sworn-in.

The new officers will be formally sworn-in by City Manager Shelley Dickstein at a City Hall ceremony on Friday, April 8, at 10 a.m. (City Commission Chambers, 101 W. Third St., second floor).

Later in the day there will be a ceremonial graduation at Stivers High School's Eichelberger Hall (1313 E. Fifth St.), beginning at 6 p.m. The keynote speaker will be Kenneth Parker, Assistant U.S. District Attorney.

Family, friends, the community and the media are welcome to attend both events.

Members of the 104th police recruit class began their training at the Dayton Police Academy in October of 2015 and completed a challenging six-month curriculum.

After graduation, each new officer will spend 16 weeks with a training officer before being ready for solo patrol.
